Dear Editor,

I would like to comment about the female-sex wearing bellbottoms and pants in school. I'm sure this protest has been brought up before but nothing has been done about it. A way the boys could protest would be by each of them wearing a DRESS!!!!!!

P.S. In some cases girls would be better off to wear pants than those short dresses because of quite hideous looking legs.

Bill Sculley - Room 17

Dear Editor,

I would like to know when the banging, drilling, and all other noise will be over with. I am afraid I will get bad marks because of this noise. A class near my room talks all the time. One day I was trying to hear my teacher and I still wonder what she said. (Thank you)

Pat Randall

Dear Editor:

I think it is very unfair that the boys always get in trouble when the big mouth girls are the cause of everything. The girls just get talked to, the boys have to sit in the halls.

Patrick Randall

Fairport Sixth Grade, 1969-70

This school is not really that bad if you compare it to not having any school at all. The food is pretty good. In the room it's hard to hear your teacher because of all the noise. We don't have too many art supplies. There are plenty of bathrooms. It's distracting to have a teacher next door that has a loud voice. But, all in all, it is really not so bad.

David McCloskey - Room 8

I am glad to be here this year because I think it will be a very good experience to see what other people are like and to see that everybody has the advantages that we do. I also like our new school but being a new school it does not have all the comforts an older school would have but being a newer school it has it's advantages.

I think that the opening of this school year was one of my better school year openings and I think the rest of the year will be a good one.

Michael Kearney - Room 1

I think the opening day of school was pretty good because there wasn't too much confusion. I think the school is very nice because there is air conditioning and there are nice teachers.

The First Days of School

The first day I was expecting tables and shelves, and walls between each room. I thought that our part would be done.

The gym is much bigger than I thought it would be. The different desks in our special classes.

The halls are very neat. Our teachers are very nice.

The food is not good at all, the milk tastes funny. It is not very noisy in the cafeteria.

Bonnie Venette - Room 6

It's a pretty good school because it has air conditioning. But it would be better if it had partitions and a bigger board and someplace to put your coats.

I like the idea of getting a paper everyday. I also like those chairs in French and Music.

Richard Miller

Fairport Sixth Grade, 1969-70

I think the Foreman Center will be O.K. when it is done. Quite often it is hard to hear each other, but we manage. I like the restrooms because they are very clean. We don't have all the things some other schools have but I think it will be fun.

Lois Hartsough - Room 8

Fairport Sixth Grade, 1969-70

The Foreman Center is new but different. It's noisy, but I like it just the same. I like the sound when the workman saw and hammer. The rooms are separated by blackboards, but it is O.K. This is a nice place to go to school.

Fairport Sixth Grade, 1969-70

I think with three classes in a room it gets confusing. I hope there will be walls between each class. With all the construction going on it is quite noisy, but that will soon be solved, I hope. The lunch helps keep me on my diet. I like the way the school is built - where the music, gym, library and French rooms are. I hope we will be able to use the library soon.

Arlen Leonard - Room 8

Fairport Sixth Grade, 1969-70

I like our school because I count trains from our window. I like the idea of having all the sixth grades together. The biggest problem is trying to hear what others are saying. The noise of the other classes in the same large room, the hammering of the workmen, and the rumble of the trains get me down sometimes.

Tim Saunders - Room 8

Fairport Sixth Grade, 1969-70

I like the school. I think it's a lot of fun to have all the sixth grades together. The only thing I don't like is not having our own cafeteria.

Lori Rosser -

When first I walked in I was surprised. I thought it would have been finished. But in a school like this it is more fun. The teacher took us on a tour of the school, they gave the walls names so you won't get lost. I and my friend got lost going to the office.

Tim Kinsey

At first I didn't know if I would like it because it wasn't finished and we only had 3 walls. But I think all the teachers are nice. And I like the kids in my class.

Kathy Roberts

I thought this year's opening was fun. I like the kids in this room and next door. I like this school because it's a new experience for me. I expected that we would have walls, but I don't care now. I think this year is going to be fun and exciting.

My First Week of School

The first day I thought it was fun. I had a lot of fun meeting old friends and finding new ones. One thing I really didn't care for was the men working and banging around. I don't mind not having partitions up, but it gets kind of hard sometimes to talk over the other classes.

Halloween Is -

On October thirty-first when the goblins, witches on brooms, black cats, ghosts and glimmering pumpkins are out, many children go out to trick-or-treat. Sometimes when people don't give treats, then the next morning they find that their windows have been soaped. Then the people have to go out and wash their windows. Sometimes children that don't have their mothers or fathers with them just might have their candy stolen from their bags by teenagers. Then the children when they get home might have fewer candy than before the teenagers took the candy from them. Usually pumpkins are smashed every Halloween and the next morning there is a mess of pumpkins smashed. Usually people get their pumpkins a week before Halloween comes. Many kids usually travel in large or small groups. Many times some kids usually travel to a lot of houses for a lot of candy. Sometimes kids make their own costumes. Many kids usually have a very happy Halloween.

James Belaskas

Halloween Is -

Halloween is a holiday that falls on October 31. It is a time for making Jack-o-Lanterns. It is a time for some people to soap windows and smash pumpkins. Halloween is spending money for candy which you give away. Halloween is taking your sisters out trick-or-treating but not going yourself. Halloween is feeling the inside of a pumpkin which is cold. Halloween is seeing your pumpkin that you grew on the front porch with a candle in it. Halloween is not being able to think up 50 words to write in a theme entitled Halloween Is. Halloween is making a costume. Halloween is trying to think up a costume to wear.

My Impressions of Going to The Foreman Center

At first I thought it was going to be just like any other school with partitions and shelves, but it wasn't anything like what I thought it would be.

The buses were horrid too, because we had to get on one bus to go to the school that was closest to where you lived and ride it to The Foreman Center.

On the way home it was crowded in the halls and there were more Johanna Perrin kids than West Avenue kids. You had to get in any bus you could to get to your regular bus at Johanna Perrin or West Avenue.

One thing is that with no partitions and three classrooms in one great big room it is horrible because you can't hear your own teacher talking. The thing I like about it is you can see your friends in the other classes.

Wendy Pryzlak

My First Week of School

The first day was very strange. When I walked in it was not the feeling I had when I walked in Johanna Perrin. When I walked into my room I thought it was weird to see other classrooms. I was worried about what kind of teacher I would have. But when I saw my teacher I knew that she would be nice. I found out that she was nice.

The next day I got used to the school. The noise was hard to get used to. But I thought I would get used to the noise.

Most of the kids in my class I knew. I knew I was glad of that.

It was hard to get used to the bus. But the first week, I did get used to it. I did like school when the week was over. I do like this school.

Irene Peck

My Impression of The Foreman Center

When I first came to The Foreman Center I thought it would be weird because there just wasn't anything to it, not even shelves or a coat rack. There were no dividers to separate the room. And too awful confusing with all the other teachers talking and the men working upstairs and things like that going on.

But now I think my wish is coming true. We will have everything that the other schools had.

Something Happened To Me On My Way To The Telephone

On my way to the telephone in the middle of the night, I fell out of bed, tripped over my shoes, turned off my alarm, stubbed my toe on a chair, turned on my light, then the hall light, stopped to get a glass of water, jammed my finger in the bathroom door, stopped to get a cookie out of the cookie jar, fell over a chair in the hall, and finally picked up the telephone receiver. Would you believe it? Whoever had been trying to reach me had hung up!

Halloween

One Halloween a girl was trick-or-treating and she met someone dressed as a ghost. "Hi" she said. "Hi" said the other trick-or-treater. I'm 4 years old, I bet I'm older than you. "No, you're not. I'm 100 years old." "How come you're still a kid then?" Because I'm a ghost Boo-o-o-o-o and the little girl ran away. So watch out for spooks on Halloween.

Some Ideas From RM. #1

Why is There a Hole in the Donut?

- ..Maybe the hole is an invisible eye
- ..Maybe it's his mouth yawning
- ..So you can put it on your finger and twirl it
- ..Look kind of neat
- ..They don't use as much dough
- ..To make people wonder why it's there
- ..To make it look more fancy
- ..Donut middles are ghost's favorite food

In case you're wondering why there really is a hole - it's because it cooks faster.
